

God's Blueprint For The Home

Lesson 2: God's Blueprint For Love In The Home

What does it mean to "love"?

1. God Commands Love In The Home

Where does God command love between husband and wife?

Where does God command love between parents and children?

Where does God command love for God?

Where does God command love for all people?

2. The Importance Of Love In The Home

How does love result in fulfilling responsibilities?

How does love hold families together?

How does love result in pleasing God?

3. The Quality Of Love God Commands In The Home

How many kinds of "love" did the Greeks recognize? What is the highest form of love?

Who is the perfect example of love? What can you learn from His love?

Briefly discuss the following actions of love (1 Corinthians 13:4-7, based on the New King James Version).

(1) Love suffers long –

(2) Love is kind –

(3) Love does not envy –

(4) Love does not parade itself and is not puffed up –

(5) Love does not behave rudely –

(6) Love does not seek its own –

(7) Love is not provoked –

(8) Love thinks no evil –

(9) Love does not rejoice in iniquity –

(10) Love rejoices in truth –

(11) Love bears all things –

(12) Love believes all things –

(13) Love believes all things –

(14) Love endures all things –