

The “Somebody Else Can Do It” Mentality

Can God use your full potential in His service?

1. What Is This Mentality?

Define the “Somebody else can do it” mentality.

What are some things this mentality accomplishes?

(1)

(2)

(3)

(4)

What are some questions this mentality asks?

Why should this mentality be avoided?

2. Areas In Which This Mentality Is Manifested

How is this mentality manifested in the leadership of the local church? Are you guilty of this?

How is this mentality manifested in the worship of the local church? Are you guilty of this?

How is this mentality manifested in the work of the local church? Are you guilty of this?

How is this mentality manifested in the assemblies of the local church? Are you guilty of this?

How is this mentality manifested in personal evangelism? Are you guilty of this?

How is this mentality manifested in serving others? Are you guilty of this?

How is this mentality manifested in edification? Are you guilty of this?

How is this mentality manifested in hospitality? Are you guilty of this?

How is this mentality manifested in visiting? Are you guilty of this?

How is this mentality manifested in family roles? Are you guilty of this?

3. Comparing Attitudes

What was Moses' attitude toward God's work?

What was Gideon's attitude toward God's work?

What was Jonah's attitude toward God's work?

What was Isaiah's attitude toward God's work?

Which one is closer to your attitude?

4. God Can Use You!

Are you a valuable part of the whole? Why or why not?

How much does God expect you to be doing in His service?

Does God expect you to be growing?